

I do not want telemarketers calling my house. I find it rude when they call during the evening while I'm having dinner or just getting ready for bed. They do not take no for an answer. It makes me angry.